JOB WORK.

In another column we print a part of the record of Colonel Fellows, whose election as district attorney in New York was considered necessary by Cleveland Hoft and Hewitt.

The result of the election in this county yesterday was a victory for the entire republican ticket though the vote on superintendent of schools will be very close. It is hardly probable that the returns from the precincts not heard from will overcome Mr. Berrey's majority. A hard fight was made against him, and his success will be gratifying to his friends, who worked so earnestly in his behalf. Mr. Plumb and Mr. Jackson are elected by large majorities.

The New York election ought to teach the prohibitionists a lesson. The "Personal Liberty" element evidently from the returns worked with the democratic party in New York, Buffalo and other cities. The prohibitionists could have beaten this combination by voting the republican ticket. But they preferred to give the "rum element" the victory. The "saloon" men know their friends and voted the democratic ticket. The prohibitionists did not vote with them, but did the next best thing. In voting they show they love their enemies. In politics it seems to pay to conciliate the saloon element. This vote is gained anyway. While opposition to the "saloon" loses the liquor vote and does not win the prohibition vote. The remark of Carl Schurz that he had rather "vote in the air" than vote in the dark pleased the prohibitionists who are criticised for supporting a forlorn hope. But in this case they voted in the mud. They ... aid to and made ... the election of the men who boldly denounced the abolition of the American Sabbath.

The Denver dailies were unusually interesting yesterday. The Denver Times discussed the conference of the Seventh Day Adventists in San Francisco, and the approaching time "when means of communication between the earth and the planet Mars will be discovered." The Denver News expressed a great deal of interest in the silver question and in the election in Ohio. It is also pleased to state that President Cleveland, Governor Hill and Mayor Hewitt gave their unqualified endorsement to the democratic municipal ticket in New York city. It does not express, however the opinion of the democratic president and the democratic governor of Colorado on the county election in Arapahoe. In its article on the election it is careful to state: "The law does not prevent scratching and changing." The Denver Republican says most of its space to the demand for "Real Estate," the "Wild Business" and the Land law. On the election which took place yesterday in Arapahoe county, it expressed the weighty opinion that "It is impossible to make even an intelligent guess." It is added that on an election morning with seven tickets in the field. that we have found the Denver papers so exciting and interesting.

The greatest disaster in the election yesterday was in the defeat of Nicoll by Fellows for the office of district attorney of New York city. It is the best illustration of the power of the machine that the election proves. In the trade between the regular democracy and Tammany Fellows was decided upon as the candidate. He will receive support but half as much and his intimate association with Tweed and other corrupt New York city politicians made him decidedly objectionable to the better class of democrats. The New York World bolted the nomination and put forward Nicoll as a candidate. He was then nominated by the republican, Irving Hall democracy and Cooper Union organizations. A great fight for Nicoll's election was considered sure. But the democrat found it essential to maintain party discipline and used every means possible. Cleveland, Hoft and Hewitt all came out for Fellows. Tilden did the same way as Nicoll in the New York World did a great deal to split the democracy. Hewitt's only good reason for supporting Fellows was to catch the newspaper men. Fellows owes his election to the opposition of Tilden. But the end does not justify the means. The election of Fellows is a blow at purity and honesty in administration. In the end it will injure both Cleveland and Hewitt. The independents were intensely interested in the election of Nicoll, and Cleveland's action will weaken their confidence in him. The alliance of the president with Governor Maryland will have not the same effect. If the republican party nominates any candidate for the White House, the democratic ... will be ... by all ... The democratic party shows how disgraceful its endorsements are. No party discipline could have held the republican voters at the polls for such a candidate.

The New York Tribune of last Sunday ... a sketch ... Dr McGlynn of the Church of Cooper Union New York. On this sketch is based the report that Dr McGlynn is soon to go back to the church. This has been denied by Archbishop Corrigan, but Father McGlynn's friendship is so strong that it is difficult to understand how there can be any mistake. He would hardly dare to put himself in the position of making

It is said by Republican politicians that Colonel Fellows during the row upon those letters and using the bolt for his own purposes who were those alleged purchases for money to be used in the election of the democratic ticket against the Ogden and bolted from the Tweed estate and when he pocketed the cash left to pay some other and humiliating explanations must arise. It is said Mr. Fellows used $1,500 in the Tilden campaign. Twenty-five hundred dollars is a big slice, upon which he could live for two years, very well, he only escaped by pleading the statute of limitations.

But it is said that Fellows, in all probability, a partial payment to Colonel Ed Bowes by Tweed for valuable services that had been rendered at the most critical time in his existence—services which the public other head by Colonel Fellows up to January 1, 1876, had given him a remarkable ability to render.

For the three years preceding January 1, 1875, Colonel John R. Fellows had been engaged in settling the accounts of the city and county of New York, being District Attorney Garvin being district attorney. During that period the Tweed ring made the horrible disclosures which caused the fall of the Tweed ring, and the force of public indignation, as was created by the commission of several city and county officers, to see the district attorney's office, assisted by the Bureau of Arrests, under Tweed and other influences to do nothing by the grand jury.

Colonel Fellows, no matter how great a practice he will have to resort to the [illegible] of these measures, and the [illegible] of the condition of county, no matter how greatly against them will, [illegible] allow him to interfere [illegible] with the details of the [illegible] which they [illegible] in the interest [illegible] Tweed. Colonel Fellows went out of office between the closing of the [illegible] records and the beginning of Tweed's [illegible] occupied by the agent of [illegible] Judge Noah Davis, [illegible] with him in the partnership [illegible] Thomas and Wheeler H. The great danger feared by the promoters of the election of the city, which the [illegible] and the [illegible] and [illegible] of that day made easy. The Church, Mayor, Recorder, and the entire corps of police were friends of Tweed and did everything that they could for him. The evening of election Mayor Hall changed the boys in the police of a ward which had been [illegible] to vote for the Ogden ticket, and [illegible] the next day [illegible] of many of these who were [illegible] their only be found [illegible] Walsh, Mark Leonard, [illegible] Barnum, Sammy Draper, and Captain [illegible] Fellows [illegible] and another [illegible] Walsh [illegible] Fellows [illegible] Mr. Fellows [illegible] Tweed [illegible] Fellows [illegible] Tweed [illegible] Fellows [illegible] Tweed [illegible]
